GRADUATE LEVEL EVENTS

Our UK & Ireland Graduate Events are aimed at attendees who:

- Are studying a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering or Mathematics) degree at a university in the UK or Ireland.
- Are eligible to work (ideally UK / Ireland nationals or Permanent Residents).

Our Netherlands Events are aimed at attendees who:

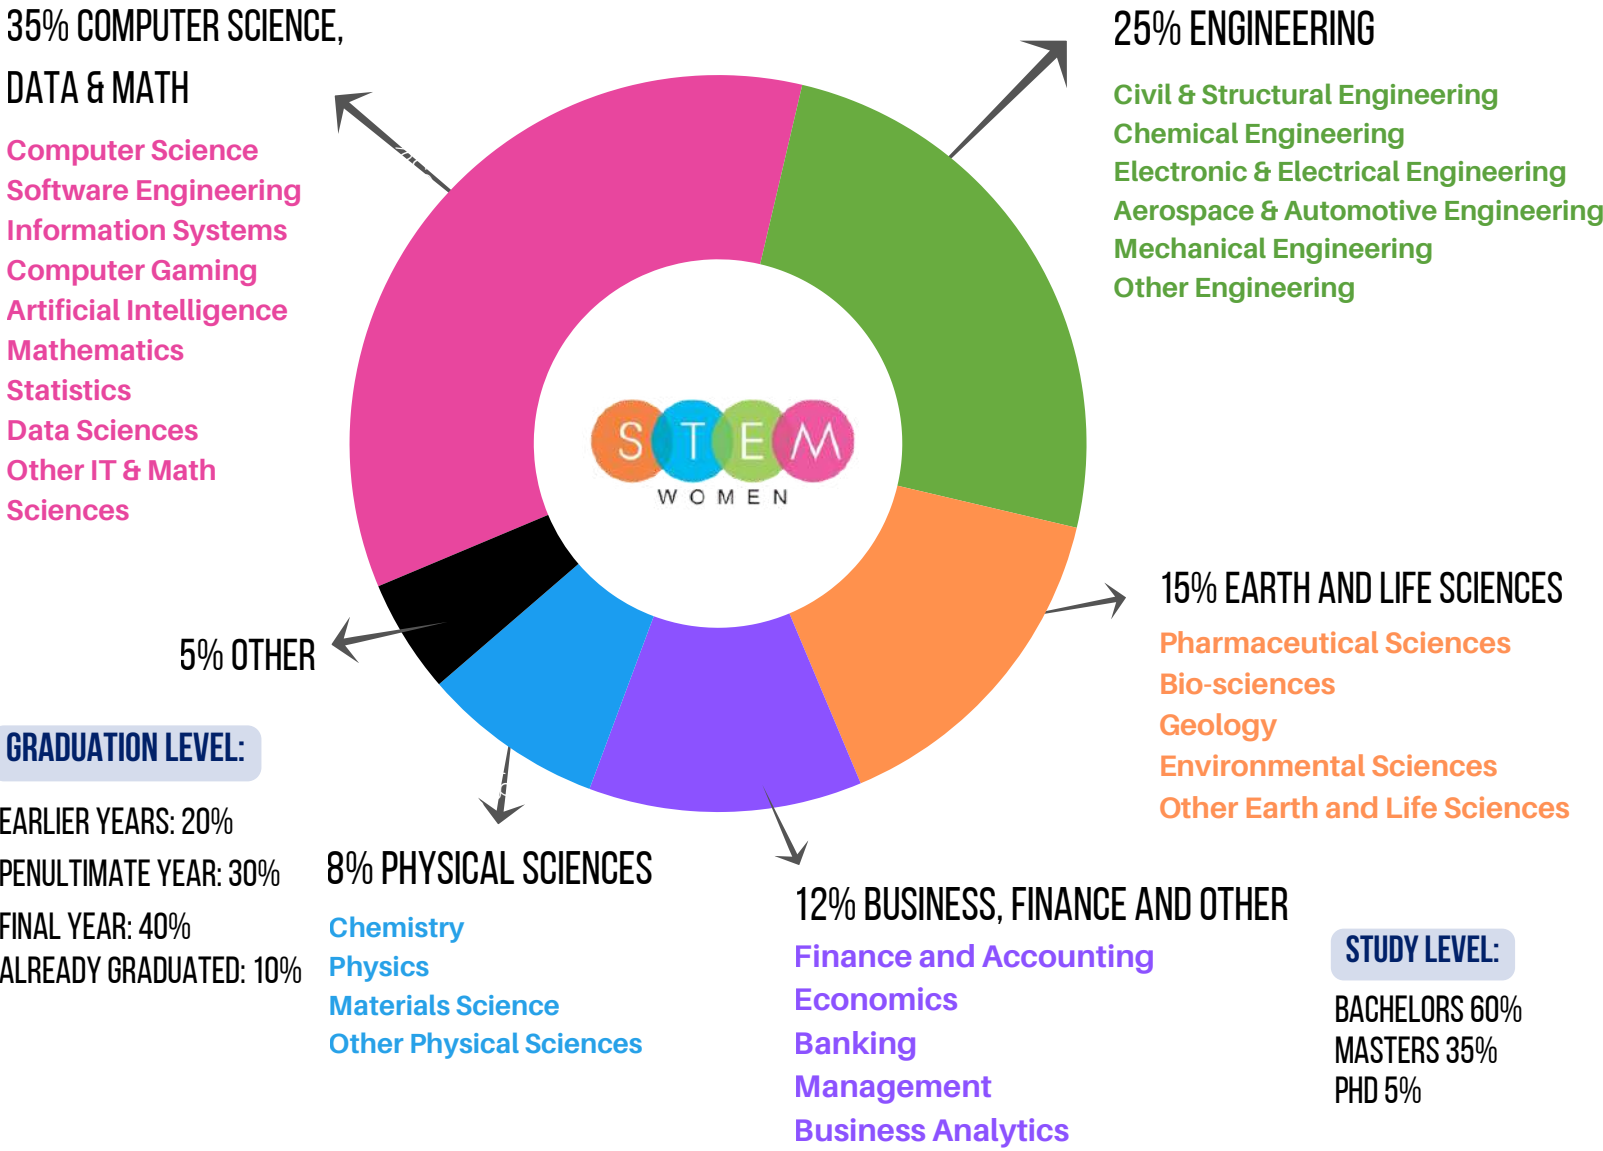

- Are fluent in Dutch and eligible to work in the Netherlands.
- Are studying a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering or Mathematics) degree at a university in Amsterdam, or in a city with a direct train connection.

We’ve ran 150+ events since 2018, mostly at graduate level. Employers at our graduate events will meet with hundreds of women studying STEM degrees via their stalls.

“You’re not going to get this kind of impact within the space of 4 hours anywhere else.”
- Anna Saproata at Cirrus Logic

Expected Student Attendance by Degree Subject:

"Exhibiting at a STEM Women careers fair is a fantastic opportunity for employers interested in raising their brand awareness to prospective high quality talent."

-Jennifer Morris - Talent Acquisition Specialist at Cochlear

"STEM Women put us in contact with so many potential candidates. There were such a diverse range of women who were so inquisitive. It was great talking to them all."

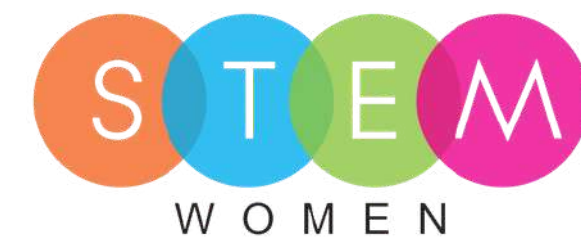

-Michael Alizzi - Training and Development Coordinator at CMC
